Apologies for the late newsletter!! We have been so caught up with the start of a new year that the newsletter is, as always, our first casualty.

Old parents (and by that we don't mean 'aged parents') have probably noticed the changes that have taken place in the school. There have been staff changes and room changes, to mention a few and systems are being put in place for a more efficient and responsible administration and teaching. As always, we are open to suggestions and 'voluntary' help from the parent body.

The children have probably been keeping you abreast of the staffing situation in the school. We have now got a list of 'substitute' teachers who will come in on short notice if any teacher is absent, though teachers are encouraged not to take leave. We have been having staff meetings daily after school and this should continue for some time – Staff timings now are from 8 am – 4 pm. Parents who wish to meet with teachers are requested to come in after school hours, after taking an appointment. The office, as before, is open on Saturdays too, from 9 am – 3 pm. Vinitha is the new addition to the office.

Mrs. Ineke Vos joined work last week and is settling in well. Ms. Elayne Mc Whirter has also arrived and will be reporting for work in
